

Dinolift Announces New Distributor in Lithuania

Dinolift, a leading manufacturer of aerial work platforms, is pleased to announce a new partnership in the Baltics, as Adampolis Rental will be the official distributor in Lithuania starting from the 1st of January 2024.

Adampolis Group, founded in 1995, is one of the largest companies in Lithuania, specializing in the sales, rental, and services of commercial and non-commercial transport and specialized equipment. With eight companies and seven different Adampolis brands under its umbrella, the group employs over 250 dedicated professionals. As a part of the Adampolis Group, Adampolis Rental aims to provide top-quality equipment rental and service solutions of construction, industrial, agricultural, utility, and airport. The company is working with premium, world well-known brands, which could offer high quality of products and meet customer needs.

"We are excited to start co-operating with Adampolis," said Hans Slotte, Area Sales Manager at Dinolift. "This collaboration is a valuable addition to our market presence in the Baltics. DINO aerial work platforms are known for their cutting-edge technology, superior performance, and innovative solutions, and Adampolis has a strong reputation for providing top-quality equipment and exceptional customer service."

Justinas Grockis from Adampolis Rental expressed their enthusiasm about the partnership, stating, "This is a significant milestone for us. We are very appreciative and happy to be able to represent such a strong brand. We have earned our place in the market precisely because we try to understand the needs of our customers, offer reliable and fast service, equipment and solutions that allow us to work more efficiently. Adding Dinolift machines to our portfolio will enable us to serve our customers better and meet their diverse needs. "
